June 24, 2024 - A new temporary traffic signal is scheduled to turn on at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, June 27, 2024 at the intersection of Fabyan Parkway and Wenmoth Road, weather permitting. Traffic signal timing will be adjusted for the traffic flow by a signal coordination timing consultant to provide safety to the motoring public.

Visit our Traffic Advisories webpage for more information on road closures, detours, and active KDOT projects.

*Motorists should expect delays while traveling through the work areas, consider alternate routes and expect additional commute time.
